

John Prendergast

John has been CEO of the Southland Community Trust since 1998. A graduate of the University of Otago, John is a chartered accountant by profession and worked in public practice in New Zealand and the United Kingdom for several years. He also held senior management roles with PowerNet, TrustBank Southland and Tranz Rail prior to joining the Trust.

John is Chair of Philanthropy New Zealand and a board member of the Catholic Board of Management, Verdon College and St Theresa's School. He resides in Invercargill with his wife Donna and their three daughters.