

Pablo Alfredo Gimenez – Brotherhood of St Laurence Australia

Pablo Alfredo Gimenez has 13 years experience working with social enterprises. Pablo's interest in social enterprise comes from his commitment to social justice and the potential for these types of enterprises to change lives and communities for the better.

From 1996 Pablo founded and managed two social enterprises: Grasslands Organic Grocery, whose mission was to fund innovative community projects and the Asylum Seeker Resource Centre's catering service, which aimed to employ asylum seekers as well generate income for the work of the Centre.

Since August 2007 he has been with the Brotherhood of St Laurence's Community Enterprise Development Initiative where he has had the opportunity to work with over 50 community/social enterprises through various stages of their development.
