

Pippa Coom

Pippa Coom is on the steering committee of Grey Lynn 2030, a transition town group working towards a vision of a self reliant, vibrant, connected, positive and sustainable community. In only a short time the group has demonstrated that a grassroots community - led approach focused on practical action can have a huge impact and achieve meaningful results.

Pippa's background is as a corporate lawyer but is currently applying her skills full time to community and sustainability focused projects through active involvement with Grey Lynn 2030, Cycle Action Auckland, Frocks on Bikes and 350 Aotearoa.
