

Roy Boonen - CEO Prometheus

Roy Boonen has recently been appointed as CEO of Prometheus Finance, New Zealand's leading ethical finance specialist. Prometheus lends to environmentally sustainable and socially responsible businesses, projects and individuals across New Zealand, with investments in renewable energy, sustainable agriculture, energy-efficient housing, resource recovery and habitat protection

Prior to this appointment Roy had 10 years involvement with Prometheus as both director and a trustee. For the last 20 years he has worked in management and finance roles in the not-for-profit sector, including:

- General Manager for Taruna College, New Zealand's only Adult Education centre providing a range of formal and informal holistic courses and subjects inspired by the work of Rudolf Steiner PhD. such as: Steiner Teacher Education, Organic Biodynamic Agriculture, Holistic Healthcare and Nursing.
- Fundraiser for Hohepa Homes Trust - formed for the purpose of establishing and maintaining homes, schools and vocational workplaces throughout New Zealand for the curative education and social therapy of children, young persons and adults with intellectual disability.
- Coordinator for Hawkes Bay Restorative Justice.